

Nicolas Notebaert

CEO VINCI Concessions, Chairman VINCI Airports

Nicolas Notebaert, born in 1970, has been working in the VINCI Group for 15 years. He is a graduate of the École Polytechnique (X 89), the École Nationale des Ponts et Chaussées (Ponts 94) and holder of an MBA.

Consultant to the World Bank in 1994, he held various positions in the Ministry of Public Works between 1995 and 2002, in DDE (Departmental Infrastructure Agencies) and as a member of the cabinet of the French Minister for Transportation and Infrastructure (2000 to 2002).

He joined VINCI in 2002 as head of operations for Cofiroute, before joining VINCI Concessions in 2004 as director of business development, France.

In February 2008, he was appointed Chairman of VINCI Airports and became a member of the Executive Committee of VINCI Concessions.

In June 2016, Nicolas Notebaert was appointed CEO of VINCI Concessions (VINCI Airports, VINCI Highways and VINCI Railways) and member of the Executive Committee of the VINCI group.